

Please do not over turn NJ's Do Not Call List's law. This has been a such a great and well received initiative withing our state. Telemarking lobbyists are now fighting the NJ's law with the no other interest than to make money. The arguments regarding it's obstruction to charitable organizations and alike are nothing more than a Red Herring to pry their way back in to our homes. Please do not buckle to the telemarking lobbieists.